Application 740 is quite different. The land reserved is the property of the temple altogether. Here the applicants wants a land which created enormous profits of the transaction and he contended for a grant of money for both temple for the purchase of the land, which became the absolute property of the temple, & the profits connecting with assets the applicants will be in accordance with precedent. A preliminary inquiry may be made by the Dy. Comr. & if it is found as contended by the applicant, the application may be granted.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your Docket No. 7004/R 2275 dated 27th January 1898, regarding the application of Amblé Anniah Pandit of Mysore praying for the grant of 20 acres of land under the new Chamarajendra Channel at an upset price of Rs 50/- an acre, as an endowment to the Sri Arkeswaraswami temple.

2. With reference to the observations contained in the above, viz, that the applicant wants a trust to be created and specifies a good many conditions in his application I am to state that Amblé Anniah Pandit appeared before me yesterday and deposed that the lands are intended solely for the benefit of the temple as an endowment for the performance of certain services therein; he disclaims all personal interest in the lands and requests that they may be registered in the name of the Temple and retained under the management of the Muzrai Department, the only condition being that the annual income therefrom should be applied for the due performance of the stipulated services in the Temple.

3. The statement given by Amblé Amniah Pandit is herewith forwarded and the enclosures to the docket under reply are also herewith returned.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

correspondence ending with letter No. 965 dated 1st February 1898 from the Muzrai Secretary to the Govt, regarding the grant of certain lands applied for by Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit under the Chamarajendra Kala, as an endowment to Sri Arkeswara Swamy Temple at Yeddatore.

Order thereon:-

No. 7417-20
R 2407.

S 5-2-98 Ex: one

Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit applies for the grant on Kaudayem tenure, of 20 acres of land under the New Chamarajendra Channel at an upset price of Rs 50 per acre as an endowment to the Sri Arkeswara Swamy at Yeddatore. The Muzrai Supdt. reports that Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit appeared before him and deposed that the lands applied for are were for the performance performance of the services in the temple referred to,

& that he disclaims all personal interest in the lands. He further reports that the applicant requests that the lands may be registered in the name of the temple and retained under the management of the Mysore Dept. subject to the condition that the annual income from the lands should be applied for the due performance of the stipulated services in the temple.

Under the foregoing circumstances, Govt are pleased to sanction the grant of 20 acres of land under the new Chamarajendra Shamy Amirdhan ~~applied for by Mr Arable's Annual Pandit~~, at the upset price of Rs 50 per acre. Mr Brown in the Mysore Dept is requested to take the necessary action in the matter & to arrange for suitable land being selected for the purpose.
